Beauty Unfaded

By Janice Veldman
the storah of sloop
the stench of sleep lingers on her breath unnoticed umonou
her sleep-tossed graying hair does not matter in hiş eyes
she has everlasting beauty it was her beauty that drew her to him his love grew roots into that beauty a romance grew from its sprouts expecting a lifetime of closeness and intimacy now that beauty has faded away he commands a new post always on alert
in the morning rises from a sleepless night his tired body moves into action a routine he knows well willing to alter if she becomes confused he assists, comforts, holds, soothes her what she was able to do he now does for her he chokes away his fears replacing those with a smile he aims to please her though never confident that he does though never confident that he does she is his and he is hers at least he hopes it is so
