Memories

Memories By Janice Veldman

Share a memory, Grandma Her family loved to reminisce Grandma's were the best Those that loved her sat around her Eagerly waiting to hear what was to be said.

She took her worn tissue paper, fragile in itself A lingering scent of age Carefully unfolding the paper The memory was nearly unwrapped.

Silence

Just pick anyone, someone said

Silence

What is wrong? The wrapping is empty No more memories to share They were gone Empty Gone

She had shared them all.
